

Evidence required to hold a new Victorian Firearm Licence

Paintball

Genuine Reason	Evidence required for an Individual
----------------	-------------------------------------

Paintball	Evidence Option 1 - Details of the applicant's current paintball club or organisation and relevant supporting documentation (i.e. a copy of the applicant's current membership card or a statement of endorsement from the Club or Organisation); or Evidence Option 2 - A brief explanation as to why the applicant will require a Paintball Marker Licence and an endorsement from an Approved Paintball Club or Paintball Operator to support this application; and have an Approved Club or Paintball Operator complete the declaration on the application form; or A brief explanation as to why the applicant will require a Paintball Marker Licence and any evidence that demonstrates that you require a Paintball Marker Licence for the purpose of engaging in paintball activities at locations approved by the Chief Commissioner. Important Information: Paintball Markers may only be used for the purpose of engaging in paintball activities on locations approved by the Chief Commissioner and licences may only be granted for this purpose. You do not need to have a Paintball Marker Licence if you only want to participate in paintball activities at an approved location using Paintball Markers owned by someone else (such as the field operator).
